VOICEAMERICA INTERNET RADIO SHOW
Total Career Success With Ken & Sheryl Dawson —

November 24, 2008 Show Features National Association of Colleges and Employers
President Manny Contomanolis, PhD
Sharing Insights on Employment Opportunities for Professionals

National Association of Colleges and Employers President Manny Contomanolis will be featured on Total Career Success, an Internet show on VoiceAmerica Talk Radio Network, at 11 a.m. Central on Monday, November 24. The show is designed to inform listeners and encourage them to achieve their career goals by featuring educational experts to provide advice on job search and career advancement.

The topic of the show will focus on the latest trends in employment and higher education and ways NACE supports students and employers as well as tips for professionals who are considering a degree program and how a degree can advance their careers. "The changing dynamics of the global workplace present ongoing challenges to both educational institutions and employers," said Ken Dawson, a show host. "NACE has been a prominent force for creative change both from the demand and supply side of the skilled talent equation."

"NACE helps to meet the needs of colleges serving their students and employers looking for educated employees," said Sheryl Dawson, one of the hosts for Total Career Success. "In the strategic vortex of this swirling talent caldron, NACE provides resources, research, information, programming, mentoring, and a community of professionals that ultimately helps the college educated get employment."

To listen to the broadcast, please visit www.voiceamerica.com and click on the Total Career Success icon. The show will air live at 11 – 12 noon Central on Nov. 24 and will then be available as an archive on the web site or to be downloaded to MP3 players and cell phones.

About National Association of Colleges and Employers

Dr. Manny Contomanolis is President of NACE and Associate Vice President of Rochester Institute of Technology in New York State. NACE is the leading source of information on the employment of the college educated. The professional association connects more than 5,200 college career services professionals at nearly 2,000 college and universities nationwide, and more than 3,000 HR/staffing professionals focused on college relations and recruiting. NACE forecasts trends in the job market; tracks legal issues in employment, the job search, and hiring practices; and provides college and employer professionals with benchmarks for their work. NACE provides research and information to its professional members, quarterly surveys of starting salary offers to new college graduates, a quarterly journal, a biweekly newsletter, and surveys of employer and college members. NACE provides members with primary tools for reaching and educating college students through our Job Choices publications and JobWeb, the online complement to Job Choices.
