“ Never the Same; Overcoming the attack of a Suicide Bomber ”

Houston, TX (PRWEB) September 3, 2009 -- Brian Fleming, wounded Veteran of the war in Afghanistan and author of 'Never the Same: Overcoming the Attack of a Suicide Bomber', will be featured on Total Career Success, an Internet show on VoiceAmerica Talk Radio Network, at 11 a.m. Central on Monday, September 7. The show is designed to inform and encourage listeners to achieve their career goals by featuring experts and business leaders to provide job search assistance and career development.

With the many wounded veterans returning from Iraq and Afghanistan, today's guest has a timely message to share through his memoir, Never the Same. It is a very personal story of a young Veteran badly burned by a suicide bomber and how he overcame his physical and emotional wounds. Brian's story of struggle, perseverance, courage and hope is one from which we can all learn and benefit. He will share some of the lessons he has learned from his experience and how he is applying them to help others.

Brian dedicated his book to the memory of those who fought beside him but did not return from war. The humility and dedication of our military are common characteristics. These patriots know the price of freedom and gladly serve. They are an inspiration to us all and Brian demonstrates these qualities with a grace and maturity uncommon at his young age.

Show co-host Sheryl Dawson shared, "Never the Same: Overcoming the Attack of a Suicide Bomber is one power packed little book. Brian passionately shares his story -- that of a young high school graduate who desired to serve the cause of freedom, no matter the cost. While serving in Afghanistan he survived the trauma of being badly burned and then endured the pain of physical and emotional healing. He paid a high cost, yet shares how the experience transformed him into a better person.

Co-host Ken Dawson added, "One of the most mature and dedicated young men I have ever met, Brian is a model for young and old alike. He demonstrates the power of faith and purpose to overcome the trials and challenges that life brings. If you want to be inspired, tune in to the broadcast."

The show will air live at 11 a.m. - noon Central on September 7, 2009. To listen, please visit VoiceAmerica.com and search for Total Career Success. About Brian Fleming, Purple Heart Recipient and Motivational Speaker:

Brian Fleming began his adult life serving as a Team Leader in a Reconnaissance Platoon with the US Army's 10th Mountain Division in Korea and Afghanistan. A Purple Heart recipient, Brian's vehicle was blown up twice and he sustained multiple injuries from the attack of a suicide bomber who detonated only 3 feet away from him on July 24, 2006 in Afghanistan. After enduring reconstructive surgery and fourteen months in rehabilitation at Brooke Army Medical Center in San Antonio, TX, he chose to turn his tragedy into triumph. Through his company, Over the Top Speaking Programs, he is a full-time public speaker. Brian has spoken to thousands across North America, speaking in high schools, universities, churches, and other business and community events. He has been featured by several media outlets including ESPN2 and The Dallas Morning News. At only twenty-four years of age, Brian is a husband and father, and the author of 3 books, A Life worth Living, 77 Ways You Can Save Money Now, and Never the Same.
